DEDICATION

The Class of 1995 fondly dedicates The White Oak to Mr. Eugene Brooks, our Assistant Principal. With an undergraduate degree from the State University of New York at New Paltz and a Masters Degree in elementary education from Columbia University, Mr. Brooks planned to retire from Webatuck, but after substituting at HVRHS the students talked him into staying. He was with Housatonic for ten years.

"No Babbling Brook" — Damien Downer

Brookisms:

"I've been in this business forty-three years and loved every minute of it."

"Kids are worth it."

"It's a teacher's obligation to be friendly, like parents. If you don't like kids, you're not right for the job."

"School, especially high school, is so much more than just classes. It teaches valued judgment based on truth and honesty. When that happens school has done its job."

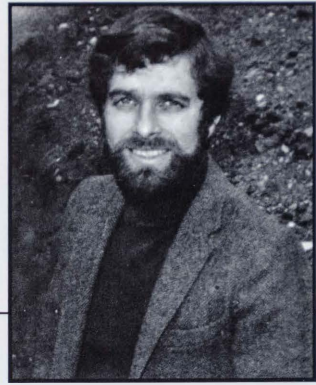

"As I go, I'll remember the adults that cared and the wonderful kids and all of the great things they did ..."

Good experience, good defense, but could this team put the ball in the net? 9 wins, 28 goals, tournament qualification — did that answer the question? A BL contender . . . beat Mills and Northwestern once . . . All Stars Barto & Belile . . . 50 girls on the squad . . . solid senior performance with sophomore goalie Adams and the sophomore scorers Sieburg, Brazee & Parker . . . look at all those Neilsons . . . 7 seniors leaving . . . undefeated JVs . . . look for a repeat in '95.

Second season for Coach Singleton . . . Mark Mankin steps in as JV coach . . . Big in spirit, big in numbers . . . 14 seniors . . . call the plays in spanish, eh, for the international flavor of Brazil's Zuffo, Costa Rico's Zuniga, Columbia's Puerto and Spain's Garcia along with local veterans . . . MVP Strid was back, the other terror on defense with Kroehle, alternating in goal were Hoar & MacNeil . . . scoring spread out evenly-Gingert, Pener, Casey, Schullery . . . experience with Wheeler, Reinholt, Sheldon & Co . . . OT win over Mills was satisfying, as were the five team victories, but the two late—season upsets in a row were the frosting on the cake.

Weaver and Whalen played tough, frosh goalie Martin was very steady in a very major role . . . plenty of young talent on the way up; second year head coach Fraser looks to future . . . Lewis Mills tie was memorable . . . the loss to that same team and Nonnewaug showed the team's spirit.

Six skiers graduated . . . but, team was expanded to include skiers from other local schools . . . Top racer was Sean Kearney, a junior at Region #7 . . . Phil Kerr and Tyson Schoezel are from Litchfield High . . . Belile continued to improve and Audrey Augustyn came on strong as a frosh, as did several other newcomers . . . team lost only to Salisbury School, caused partially by such icy conditions that only three Housy skiers completed two runs on the course during the last meet of the season . . . defeated Forman School twice, Forman's only losses this season . . . Coach Tom Jensen's determined group had an excellent campaign.

"Rebuild" was the key word this spring ... Coach Dick Simmons began with senior vets Darin Kroehle and Kevin Wheeler ... Guido Rosini, Hans Truax: first-year upperclassmen ... Pleasantly surprising freshmen Tim Parry and Jon Wilbur ... Kroehle was most often the medalist, leading the squad as Co-Captain and MVP ... Wheeler was close behind, in a BL that featured many experienced men to challenge. The team developed and improved as the season went on; two victories over OWTS and an upset over Terryville were the high points.

Young team; off to a slow start ... Coach Jensen "faced with tremendous adversity; team showed character ... "Waugh, Casey for three goals; Micancin scored four vs. Holy Cross ... Pener, Parmalee and Nate Sheldon = assists ... Good spirit, good numbers, good play; two incredibly close ones; ended season with the St. Joseph win. Caliber of play and competition illustrated as Casey scored five against Avon, but Avon scored five in the last period, then won by a goal.

Seniors Tobin, Memoli, Hathaway and Perotti stabilized this mixed squad of veterans and rookies as a BL contender if things broke right: steady upperclassmen Toomey, Reid, Brooks, Chanin, Weaver and All-Star Jill Neilson were also ready to excel ... alternating wins and losses through mid-season. Housy turned the corner with the first Litchfield game victory and was able to qualify for tournament post-season play ... after the 2 run loss to East Windsor, the team won six of their last eight for a strong finish, but was unable to hit Farmington's Class M tourney pitcher in the finale ... two freshmen and two sophomores were starters — '96 looks good, too.

A difficult season ... rookies had to fill in key spots ... the search for pitching continued — solved by Rob and Gabe as Travis left ... only four seniors ... solid infield grew better towards end of season (three of the wins were in the last five games) ... Chapin could hit homeruns as well as throw strikes ... ten innings versus Gilbert for the win, too bad someone had to lose in the Mills 8-inning slugfest ... two each from OWTS and Wamogo helped.

MICHAEL'S CUP

April, 1995

Honored for the second consecutive year, for the third time in the past six years, Housatonic won the Class SS award for its excellence in athletics. The runners-up this year were Nonnewaug and Gilbert. "It's terrific. As you know, it's a real tribute not only to our athletes but to the taxpayers that help support our programs," said Athletic Director Bayersdorfer to the local reporters. The 10th annual award was based on several criteria, the won-lost record for all sports the previous year, participation in non-CIAC sports, the number of student participants, and school programs in sportsmanship, substance abuse, and scholastic support.

THE ALTERNATIVE SCHOOL

West Cornwall

A great and exciting year will be remembered for the successes of the students and the program. There was sadness too; the fire and retirement of Bill, but those memories will be overcome by the good things. Bill Devoti founded the school and was lead teacher over the years with partners Pete Barrett, Jim Czaja, Ed Thorney, and Mary Ann Cormier. As Bill said at the outstanding retirement party orchestrated by the kids, "I'll do my own magic trick. A miracle is just a change in perception. I'll wave my magic wand and you'll all appear."
